A New Home to Call Our Own!

A message from Cindi

Cindi Werner,
Executive Director

Hello- this year has flown by and I just want to say thank you for all your support. From sponsorships and financial support, to donations of goods and shopping at our ReStore, to the many, many volunteers that help build homes, raise money, serve on our boards and committees, and keep our office humming. We are humbled by your support and generosity.

What's Next

We are scheduled to build 4 homes in Sierra Valley in 2017, and are working through the winter to ensure that happens. There's a lot of construction work to be done so please check-out the "Volunteer" tab on our webpage or contact Chris our Faith Relations & Volunteer Coordinator. Or if the ReStore is more your interest, please contact

30 years of building decent, affordable housing

Next year will be our 30th year of serving the community and we've had the honor of working with many great families and volunteers over the years. We've completed 132 Habitat homes so far and are now building in Sierra Valley. Stay tuned for news about our celebration and fundraising event, planned for November 4, 2017. It will be a festive "Boots and Blue jeans" affair at Ellis Ranch. Details are in the works now and will be announced soon.

I look forward to sharing more news with you on homebuilding progress in the new year. Should you have any questions about Loveland Habitat, you can email me here. Have a very Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!

Winter Warriors Build Homes!

Winter is finally here. While it can be the most wonderful time of the year, it can also be the busiest! As many of us are decorating, celebrating and exchanging gifts, Loveland Habitat for Humanity is still working hard to provide homes, community and hope. Our construction sites are open and active year-round and the winter months can be the most difficult to find volunteers. No experience is needed, all the tools are provided, and there is often indoor work available. It's a great way to meet fun folks and give back to your community. All we need are people willing to serve! For more information on volunteer opportunities, go to www.lovelandhabitat.org, or email our Volunteer Coordinator Chris Zwakenberg

The Day Begins at the Construction Site

December 20, 2016. Snow's on the ground and volunteers arrive to work on our new quadplex. Down the street, a new single family home is almost complete, and work on a new home foundation is underway. It's a busy time at Loveland Habitat!
